Most students at Classical complete algebra or geometry by the end of the eighth grade.

Fox Cities Leadership Academy

In an effort to create a brand that more closely matches our educational goals, the Appleton Career Academy (ACA) has changed its name to the Fox Cities Leadership Academy (FCLA). Like the ACA, all students who desire an educational experience that involves presentational opportunities, encourages teamwork, insists on personal responsibility, provides leadership opportunities, and develops 21st century skills will be welcomed into the FCLA. In the past the ACA was directed toward the professions of Health, Business and Marketing, or Design Technology but we realized that student interests expanded beyond these three intended fields. Like the ACA, the FCLA will continue to differentiate its instructional methods from those found within Appleton North by having an integrated learning curriculum. This means the learning looks at the "big picture," and brings into play two or more subject areas. Also, learning is interdisciplinary in both content and process, and often thematic in nature. Consequently, the environment allows for diverse student inquiry, choice of topic, etc. within the teacher's seminar design.
